

Helping Hand of Myrtle Beach Newsletter

1st Quarter 2024

HELPING HAND
OF MYRTLE BEACH

Welcome to our quarterly newsletter!

What's New?

Hats, Socks and Gloves (Above)

We were able to supply our clients with hats, socks and gloves during the colder months thanks to various donations received.

Sleeping Bags and Blankets (Right)

We received a donation of Wakeman sleeping bags and a few other donations of blankets. Our clients were extremely thankful for these items to help them stay warm during the winter months. Thank you so much for your support and generosity!

First Quarter Donations

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus-Council 17824 (right), for allowing us to be a partner and work the concessions for the CCU football games for the fall season! Our Volunteers (and spouses), as well as Board Members, volunteered their time for a total of 963 volunteer hours! This truly is a partnership that includes the K of C, our Volunteers and Board Members coming together to support our community! Thank you!

Thank you to BNI of Myrtle Beach for your amazing donation of over 3,000 pounds of food! Such a Blessing! Other Donations received came from numerous Churches, various Individuals and groups, businesses, Community Kitchen, New Directions, local Schools and Anonymous donors.

THANK YOU to ALL for the continued support for our community members in need!

Our Amazing Volunteers!
